Linda Hornbuckle

Linda Hornbuckle started singing at the age of six in the Grace & Truth Pentecostal Church, Portland, Oregon, a church her father, Bishop H. Hornbuckle pastored. She began thrilling audiences in the Pacific Northwest, Europe, Canada and across the U.S. only a few years later.

As Portland's most sought after backup singer, she has toured and/or recorded with National recording artists; "Quarterflash", "Nu-Shooz", "Dan Reed", and "Gino Vinelli". She later became lead vocalist for the high profile Motown Revue Band, "Body & Soul" and in 1992 became the driving force for the Blues act "Linda Hornbuckle & the No DeLay Band".

Today... Linda has become a bandleader and launched her own voyage into stardom as a solo act called Linda Hornbuckle, which personifies her solo venture, yet draws some of the most dynamic musicians in the Northwest to her side.

Tickets go on sale Wednesday, September 9th, 10am at Cannon Beach Chamber, 503-436-2623. Go to Linda Hornbuckle's website at www.lindahornbuckle.com
